

PRINCIPLES OF PUBLISHING COMMERCIAL AND SUBSTANTIVE ARTICLES IN THE "NOWA ENERGIA" MAGAZINE

- The heading on the article's first page shall include: the first name and surname of the author, the name of the represented institution/company and, below, the title of the article.
- Below the title, there shall be a short summary/lead text (preferably up to 500 characters with spaces).
- The article shall be delivered in the Word format, and graphical images (photographs, charts, diagrams) shall be in the jpg, eps or tif format, with the resolution of 300 dpi.
- Each graphical image shall have a matching title/caption. Smaller graphical images may be grouped on one page.
- The titles of the article's sections/subsections shall be in bold print and shall not be numbered.
- Each bibliography item shall contain the author's surname, the initial(s) of his/her first name(s), the full title in the original language, and (1) for books: the name of the publisher, and the place and year of publication; (2) for magazines: the title of the magazine, the volume number, the year of publication, the current number, and the numbers of the pages. Russian-language items shall be transcribed. The numbers of individual bibliography items shall be without parentheses.
- The title page shall contain 3.5 thousand characters with spaces. A full A4 page (without graphical images) shall contain 5 thousand characters with spaces.
- The materials for publication in specific issues of the magazine shall be delivered according to the release schedule available at: https://magazyn.nowa-energia.com.pl/dokumenty/magazyn\_ne\_plan\_wydan.pdf
- The publisher may introduce editorial changes which relate to style, abbreviations or the article's layout but do not change the specialist content of the article.
- Each article, after its layout composition, shall be sent to the author for final verification.
- The materials for publication shall be sent to: redakcja@nowa-energia.com.pl.
